The Baptism of the Lord

“You are my Son, the beloved, my favour rests on you.” Those wonderful words, spoken to Jesus on the occasion of his Baptism in the Jordan, are spoken to each one of us because of our baptism into him. Just listen to God speak those words from his heart into your heart now: “you are my daughter, my son, the beloved, my favour rests on you.” Our major task is to live out that love of God in our vocation. For you as a couple committed in love, make your life together full of the joy of God’s love. Single people, religious, priests, live out the same vocation of love in diverse ways but for the same purpose: to fill the world with the presence and the love of God. As a community of faith the parish is a gathering of all these vocations so that, working with one another, we can radiate that same love to all those around us.

Answering God's call

The disciples asked Jesus 'where do you live?' He replied, 'come and see'. One of the most beautiful truths of our faith is found in the promise that Jesus made to us "where two or three are gathered in my name I am there with them." It is an answer for us to the question that the disciples asked. Jesus lives in our community with one another because of our baptism. He lives in every married couple because of the sacrament they share. He lives in every home because of the love that bonds us to one another as parents with children, as sisters and brothers. The significance of our parish is that it is not merely a place where we worship but is a real presence of Christ in our world. We will only see him in all these special places in so far as we answer his call to love God with our whole heart and to love one another as he loves us.

The ways of the Lord

"Follow me and I will make you into fishers of people." Those words of Jesus, which are given to us for this week, are usually thought of as being addressed to people with a vocation to the priesthood or religious life. They are about those vocations certainly but are addressed to each of us. The four great vocations in the Church are single life, married life, religious life and priesthood. All of us who are baptised are living one of those and each of us is vital to the health of the whole body, the Church. We live our vocations in different ways but to the same end, the salvation of the world. Our task is to discover how to live our own vocation to the full. This means discovering how to make our love radiate out to those around us. We begin in our homes with those who are closest to us. Then we can reach out to the world around us. When we are with Christ and following him love will be the characteristic of our lives.

The Lord our teacher

“His teaching made a deep impression on them because, unlike the scribes, he taught them with authority.” As Christians we believe that Jesus is the one above all others who can teach us about God. And the God that he reveals to us is a God of infinite love and compassion. At times we, as the Church, move away from this God and create a God of fear and judgement. Our responsibility is to move back very firmly to the God of Jesus. We also believe that Jesus is the one above all others who can teach us about the meaning of human life. He teaches us very clearly that human life is about love. We make it about wealth, or importance, or pleasure and we have to constantly move back to pinning our hopes on love: in marriage; in family life; in our life with one another in the parish community. This is becoming more and more important as our society changes with such speed and can leave us without our roots.

Christ who heals us

“The fever left her, and she began to wait on them.” One of the lovely features of the Gospels is the number of healing stories they contain. Nothing is too big or too small to bring to Jesus. He raised Lazarus from the dead; he healed Peter’s mother-in-law from a fever. That same Jesus is with us and among us with the same power and the same longing, to heal us into wholeness. All we have to do is ask him for what we need for ourselves and for one another and know that he will answer. We all need his healing power in so far as we set limits to our love for one another because his great commandment is to love. Husbands and wives often need to stretch their love into forgiveness if they are to go forward together. Parents need to grow in understanding of their children. And in our parish, we need Christ’s power to help us to take true responsibility for those in need.

Derry Diocesan Lenten Prayer

*Loving Father,
To prepare for His mission of proclaiming
Your kingdom to the world
Your Son Jesus was guided by Your Holy Spirit to the quiet of the desert.*

In these Lenten days, I pray that I will be guided by that same Spirit, to a place of renewal in my heart and mind, so that I will seek opportunities for daily personal prayer, personal sacrifices and acts of kindness.

*With Your help, may I too be truly prepared to share in the story of the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus
Your Son, our Lord.*

Amen.

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus, friend of outcasts

“Whatever you eat, whatever you drink, whatever you do at all, do it for the glory of God.” We often think of faith and religion only in terms of prayer. The extraordinary thing about Jesus and his teaching, as seen in this passage from St. Paul, is that true religion is to be found in the ordinary things of life and true faith is to be lived in daily life. This is especially true in the day-to-day loving that is marriage. Each couple live out their spirituality in the ways they tenderly love one another. And in family life the quality of love is what makes people holy. In our life together in our parish we are called to the spirituality of being a community in which we care for one another. We need prayer as part of it all both to grow in the power to love and to celebrate the goodness of love. It is only through the power of God that we can love as we should.

First Sunday in Lent

The Kingdom of God is close at hand
Jesus said: “Repent and believe the Good News”. At the beginning of Lent, this call of Christ sets the agenda for the next six weeks. The first thing we have to do is ‘repent’. What does that mean for us? It simply means ‘let go’ – let go of the things and the ways of living that limit our freedom to love God with our whole heart and strength and our neighbour as ourselves. Secondly Christ calls us to ‘believe the Good News’. This means to live the Good News, to practice being happy, to bring joy and peace and healing to all those we live with and those we meet. This obviously has huge implications for married couples in their relationship; for families in their life together; and for every parish community. Lent is not just about giving things up but rather about changing in ways that will bring life to others. Six weeks practice should make a profound difference to our lives.

*"Eat whatever you want for Lent. The sacrifice is not in the stomach, but in the heart. They refrain from eating meat, but don't talk to their siblings or relatives, don't visit their parents or bother them to attend to them. Don't share food with the needy, forbid children to see their father, forbid grandparents to see their grandchildren, criticize other people's lives, beat their wife, etc... A good barbeque or beef stew won't make you a bad person, just like a fish fillet won't turn you a saint. Better seek to have a deeper relationship with God through better treatment of others. Second Sunday in Lent

This is my Son, the Beloved

"It is wonderful for us to be here." Peter made this enthusiastic statement in the story of the Transfiguration, which is given to us this Sunday for our inspiration in faith. Each of us has a right to be able to make this same statement in our following of Christ. It is also one of the most important responsibilities we have to each other to make that possible. We do this by working together to build our parish into a real community of faith and hope. It means everyone being willing to take their full part in the life of the parish. We do it by making our homes into places of joy and happiness. Again, each person, no matter how young, has a part to play in bringing this about. Married couples do it for each other by working on the quality of their relationship of love in terms of tenderness and affection. This takes dedicating time for each other and using that time well.

Father Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

Travelling so far for water each day affects other parts of the lives of Malita and her children, Margaret, Patrick and Patricia. Carrying 20 litres of water leaves the children tired and some days they are not able to go to school. Farming is an important part of how the family support themselves, but a lack of water makes farming difficult. Trócaire and our partners in Malawi are working to create solutions to the water shortages, such as digging bore holes close to villages. To learn more, go to: www.trocaire.org.

Third Sunday in Lent

Christ, the Wisdom of God

Jesus said: “Stop turning my Father’s house into a market.” Isn’t it amazing how we human beings can miss the point of even the things we treasure most. The Jewish people saw the Temple as the greatest treasure they had in their life of faith and yet they developed a system of abusing that sacred place in the very name of their religion. We do the same: when we call marriage a Sacrament and then have little care for the couple relationship except when it is in trouble; when we call our homes the Domestic Church and treat them as if Christ did not live there among us; when we talk about our parish as a community of faith but do very little to build community; when we are fed on the Body and Blood of Christ and yet refuse to love and respect many members of the Body of Christ. We do it when we allow ritual to become more important than people.

In Malawi, longer and more severe droughts in recent years have dried up small streams and water holes. Unfortunately, some areas are also affected by cyclones and flooding. When this happens, the simple mud houses are badly damaged. The water that falls is not suitable for drinking or farming but causes a huge amount of destruction. Trócaire is working with local partners to help communities to rebuild after these events and to be better prepared for the future.

Fourth Sunday in Lent - Laetare Sunday

Christ, the Redeemer

"God sent his Son so that through him the world might be saved." We can become so familiar with a sentence like this that we miss the profound truth in it of how much God loves us and longs for us. We think of faith as meaning our belief in God. It is much more about God's intense belief in us and in our goodness and beauty and he wants us to come to a knowledge of that too. We have a serious responsibility to one another of constantly bringing that knowledge to each person in every way we can. One of the major tasks for every married couple is to help each other to know how much they are loved and treasured. This is done through affirmation and affection. Parents have this same responsibility towards their children. They can help each one be a truly successful human being by building up their goodness. And in the parish community we help one another by looking out for each other.

Congratulations to our young people who received the Sacrament of Confirmation last Sunday 3rd March.

Thanks to their Parents, Sponsors, Ms. Grainne O’Kane, (Class Teachers), Mrs Susie Kuczogi (Classroom Assistant) Mrs Mary O’Kane (Principal) & all those involved in preparing our young people.

Thanks to Sean Scullion, Oonagh McFerran and the School Choir who provided the beautiful music and to all those who helped in the Church during the ceremony.

Finally we would like to thank Fr. Chris for celebrating our Confirmation Mass with us. We wish all our young people every blessing!

Congratulations!

We are currently seeking individuals aged 18 or older to assist with the collecting of the baskets during our weekend Masses. Kindly leave your details with Patrick in the Office.

GIFT AID

Gift aid works by allowing charities to reclaim tax on the 'gross' equivalent of the donation (i.e. it's value before tax was deducted) at the basic rate, which is currently 20%. To put £1 into the collection, you will have earned £1.25 and paid 25p (this is 20% of £1.25) in tax before you had it to spend, or donate in practice, this means that every £1 you donate using Gift Aid, the Church can claim an additional 25p from HMRC, and so get £1.25 from your donation without it costing you any more than £1.

If you are a tax payer please consider making your payments go further by signing a Gift Aid form. Please contact Patrick in the office.

The Parish Office will be CLOSED tomorrow

Fifth Sunday in Lent
Feast of St. Patrick

Our forgiving God

“Anyone who loves her/his life loses it; anyone who hates her/his life in this world will keep it for the eternal life.” At first glance that statement from Christ in this Sunday’s Gospel is hard to take. But it is God’s wisdom, and we must listen to it. It’s really about our priorities. If our priorities are all just about the here and now and our own gratification we will lose everything. If we set our sights on what God wants for us we will gain far more than we ever imagined possible. And what God wants for us is love, peace, joy, freedom, full life - all of which can only be gained by giving ourselves fully to one another. Marriage and family life are the two great schools for learning self-giving. In marriage each person has to deliberately choose what is good and best for their life together. In family life parents especially have to constantly give of themselves. That is how people grow to maturity.

Holy Week is the most sacred time for us as followers of Christ. It is the week when Lenten penance should be exercised in a special way by taking time personally, as a family, and in the parish community to journey with Jesus into his death on the Cross, and beyond. The stages of his journey are:

Palm Sunday: from being celebrated to being forgotten;*

Holy Thursday: from giving himself to his disciples in the Eucharist to being denied by them;*

Good Friday: from surrendering himself to God's will, to being abandoned even by God in death;*

Holy Saturday: from complete emptiness in death to new life.*

During Holy Week we journey through all these stages with Jesus so that he may bring us new life and hope.

Prayers Around the Cross

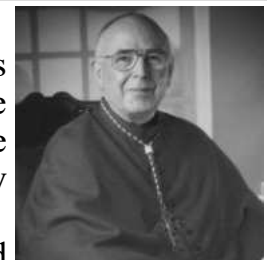

Please join us this Wednesday evening at 7.00pm where the staff and pupils of St. Brigid's Primary School will lead us in the Way of the Cross.

BISHOP EDWARD DALY

On the 31st March 1974 Bishop Daly was ordained as Bishop of Derry. Many of the older amongst us were confirmed by the Bishop and we indeed remember the many visits he made to our parish.

Fifty years later we remember and thank God for his ministry and for the great leadership he gave in a dark and difficult period in our country's history. Like many churchmen of every denomination and our political and community leaders, he helped to lay the foundation of the peace that we enjoy today. We pray for the repose of his gentle soul.

RESURREXIT SICUT DIXIT, ALLELUIA!

We are this year able to celebrate the great feast of Easter in a more normal way than for four years and in such peaceful times.

We thank God that our political institutions are up and running and we pray for their enduring success.

While we rejoice in the progress towards a more normal life, we are very conscious of all those who have suffered and indeed continue to do so as a result of the terrible violence in Gaza, Ukraine, Myanmar and the other trouble spots.

This Easter is very much overshadowed by these terrible events in these countries, where there is little to rejoice about.

This year, too, there is continued added financial pressure on many families.

We are very conscious of those facing this Easter without a loved one for the first year. We also think of those dealing with serious illness.

Yet there is still much to be optimistic about. Twenty-five years of relative peace. A lifestyle that our ancestors could barely dream of, and a wonderful, strong community to live in.

The Easter message is one of Hope over the greatest adversity and light in the darkest of situations. The Easter message of the Risen Christ is the only real meaning in a troubled world.

I wish you all the Blessings of Easter and I thank you for your constant prayers and support for us and our great Parish.

Fr Eamonn

Our advocate with the Father

Jesus said: “You are witnesses of all I have said.” Over the past few years, we have become very aware of the human frailty of the Church, often to the point of keeping our heads down and hoping that it will all go away. And we have good reasons for being ashamed and afraid and even at times resentful. But we also have a great responsibility to witness boldly to Jesus who has risen from the dead and is alive in us as his Church. We do this, not so much by preaching, as by how we live our lives in joy and hope and love. Our families, our couples, our community and our society badly need the witness of people of faith who are happy, content, forgiving, thoughtful, prayerful, caring. If we work at it together, we can make a difference. That is our call this week as husbands and wives, parents and children, and as a community of faith.

4th Sunday in Easter

The Good Shepherd

Jesus said: “I am the Good Shepherd; I know my own and my own know me.” This Sunday and the week ahead is a very special time of prayer for vocations. What does this mean for you personally, for you as a family and for you as a parish community? For many it quite possibly means very little and yet it has vital significance. We take for granted that there will always be priests to serve us with the Eucharist and religious to take the initiative in our social needs. Recent years have provided us with a very different reality and a very new challenge. In our response to Christ the Good Shepherd we are all called to make our homes places of his presence for the world. We can only do this through the confident ways we make our love for one another shine out and our faith in him be seen by those around us. And we need to make our faith community a place that attracts the attention of those around us. The Lord will then provide what is needed for the Eucharist and for leadership for a better world.

Mass for those sitting Exams

Our Mass for students sitting exams will take place next Sunday 28th April at 6.00pm in the Church. Sitting exams can be an overwhelming and stressful time. Why not take some time out to attend this Mass with your family or friends? Take some quiet time to disconnect from the stress of all the preparations and study and pray for yourself and others.

Praying for Vocations

As we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday / Vocations Sunday we ask God's blessing on our diocesan seminarians in Rome, Maynooth, and Salamanca, and for all those working in the area of priestly formation.

We pray for those discerning their vocation at this time, that they will allow themselves to be guided by the Holy Spirit speaking to them through their Spiritual Director and in their personal prayer.

We ask God's blessing on those applying these days to begin their studies in seminary next January. May the Lord inspire many more men to answer His call to serve the people of this diocese as priests.

Trocaire 2024

*We would like to express our gratitude to all those who contributed to Trocaire this year. The final amount raised by our Parish was £3,224.58.

Celebrating Mary in the Month of May is a very special month for the Church as we remember Mary, the Mother of Jesus and our Mother. A full month is given over to Mary and during this month we are encouraged to honour Mary in different ways - Why not set up a May Altar in your home during this month of May or say a decade of the Rosary each evening?

An Exam Time Prayer Book will be placed at the front of the Church. Students, their parents, grandparents family & friends are invited to enter their names in this book.

YOUTH OF ACUTIS

Christ, the true vine

Jesus said to his disciples: “It is to the glory of my Father that you should bear much fruit.” When we think of faith we generally think of our faith in God. Jesus reveals God’s faith in us, and the trust he puts in us to show his love to the world in which we live. We ‘bear much fruit’ for God by the way we love one another, first of all in our homes, and then in our community. Each of us has a great responsibility to practice all the qualities of love constantly – kindness, gentleness, compassion, understanding, forgiveness, encouragement, praise, thanksgiving and so on. Our homes and our parish community should be places where everyone can be glad to be and can know God’s love and praise God’s name. In this way, the renewal of the Church is never completed but is something that is started fresh every Sunday.

The Spirit of God's love

Jesus said to his disciples: "You did not choose me; no, I chose you." Anybody who is involved in a team sport will know the tension there is in wondering if they will be picked for the team and then the delight when they are picked or the utter disappointment when they are not. Jesus has picked each one of us for his team of disciples because the task of transforming the world is so vast and because each one of us has our own unique gifts and opportunities for the task. Our responsibility is to say yes to his call and take our part in his mission. As always this begins in our homes with the most intimate relationships of human life, to make those the best they can possibly be. Our mission is also to our faith community where we have a special relationship in the Body and Blood of Christ. And it extends to the world in which we live. This week we can refresh the enthusiasm and joy of being chosen.

The Feast of the Ascension

The Ascension of Christ into heaven

Jesus said to his disciples: “Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation”. Because of all that has been happening in the Church in recent years we can feel despondent about the future. Today's feast of joy and gladness is a call to us to look up with confidence and know the power of Christ for the world in which we live. In spite of the sinfulness of his people, Christ is at work and can overcome. Our task is to let the world know his love and his salvation, not just by word but especially by the way we live with joy and hope and love. Although these qualities are best developed in our homes and families, they need to be seen and experienced in our parish community. This can only happen when we are all taking our responsibility for the health and well-being of our parish and its future.

The Feast of Pentecost

Jesus said to his disciples: “Peace be with you. As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.” Then he breathed on them and said: “Receive the Holy Spirit.” As we celebrate Pentecost in our homes and our faith communities, there are two qualities we need to develop – peace and energy. Peace is Christ's desire for us as we journey with him and with one another. But peace is not a passive thing. Rather it is a dynamic way of life. We are to be his witnesses in the world, and so he gives us his Holy Spirit so that we can have the energy we need in order to witness through love. This love is practiced and developed in marriage and family life. It needs to be extended to the life of the faith community. Our motto for this week of Pentecost can be: “Love as if everything depends on you. Live as if everything depends on God.”

The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity

Jesus said to his disciples: “Know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.” What a wonderful consolation and strength this promise that Jesus made to us is for his followers! He is with us in so many ways – in the Sacraments; in the Eucharist; in our prayers. But Jesus is especially with us always in our love relationships, especially in marriage and family life. He is also with us through our parish community. That is the meaning of being a parish – a people among whom Jesus lives. And the wonderful thing is that he is also always present to our world through us. We have a serious responsibility to build our homes and parishes into real living communities of faith and love so that Jesus can bring salvation to our world and so that our God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit may be praised and glorified.

Our Parish Cemeteries

There has been noticeable increase in dog fouling in the cemeteries of the parish. A number of families have had the distressing experience of their family graves being fouled on. The added hazard is that with the grass cutting the fouling is dispersed by lawn mowers and strimmers. This causes contamination of graves, floral arrangements as well as visitors and those who are grass cutting. It is a particular hazard for your children who are always welcome visitors. (Sadly, I know of one child who lost an eye due to dog fouling.)

We are living in a time of heightened health awareness as never before. So we ask, in order to protect each other that dogs are not to be taken into the cemeteries but be secured at the perimeter to allow owners to visit their family graves and to allow others a healthy visit. Thank you for your co-operation.

The Feast of the Corpus Christi

“Take this and eat”, Jesus said, “This is my body. This is my blood, the blood of the covenant which is to be poured out for many.” What an extraordinary love Christ has for us that led him to give us this wonderful sacrament through which he is our food and drink. And yet we become so used to the knowledge of it that we can even see it as a burden. But we do the same with our love for one another. In marriage and family life many people feel burdened by the demands of love. In parish life we can settle for a minimum. This week is a very special time to renew the sense of awe that should be ours when we think of the extent of God’s love for us and the privilege of our love for one another. It is a week to cry out: “My Lord, and my God” and to say again to each other “I love you”.

Fullness of redemption

Jesus said: "Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother." We so often associate the will of God with things that go wrong. If someone dies, or has a bad accident, or there is a break-up in a marriage etc we try to console ourselves or others by saying that it is the will of God, as if God causes these tragedies. The will of God is always about what is best for us, like at the time of a death or illness that we would take care of one another so that these traumas would not destroy us. God's will is for a husband and wife to grow in their love and affection every day; for parents to love their children by giving them their time and attention; for us to take care of the poor in our community; to support those who are broken and to rejoice with those who are celebrating. Then we are Christ's brother and sister and mother. What a privilege we have!

He speaks in parables

Jesus said: "What can we say the Kingdom of God is like?" We all have our own ideas of what the Kingdom of God is like and because of that we need to listen carefully to what Jesus says about it because he is the only one who does know! In the two parables today he tells us first of all that it is God's kingdom. God is at work in us and around us all the time even when we are not attentive to God. He also tells us that the small things are the key to the growth of God's kingdom. These have a very important message for us in our main relationships of faith, hope and love in marriage, family life and our faith community. God is present in all of these, working to bring us to maturity. Our contribution is to be found in the small things of love – giving time to one another; showing affection to one another; affirming one another; forgiving one another etc. We are standing on holy ground!

Jesus the Lord of the storm

Jesus said to his disciples: "Why is it that you are so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?" Over the past few years the Church has been going through a fierce storm. It has been a time of anxiety and worry for many. It has also been a time of deep hurt and anger for others. And there seems to be no end to it. The word of Jesus today is very timely for us. Even though the storm is real, and we have to face the reality of it with all its implications, we have to remember that Christ is with us and he will bring calm again. However, this does not mean that we do nothing but wait. We have a real responsibility to work for that calm by the ways we love one another in our homes and in our community. This will take a lot of generosity with our time and our talents in building marriage and family life to their fullest and it will take a new commitment to building ourselves as a community of faith and hope.

Jesus the Lord who gives life

Jesus said: "Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep." But they laughed at him. A lovely feature of our Catholic tradition is that we can have a good sense of humour even about the most sacred things. However, what we see in the Gospel today is not humour but ridicule. And there is a lot of that today about what we hold sacred. There are a lot of good jokes about the marriage relationship, for example. But there is also a lot of ridicule about it today which we should not tolerate. Young people find it difficult today to admit to going to Mass because their peers make fun of them for it. We need to find the ways of encouraging them to keep going. Our society will tolerate anything but people who treasure their faith. We need to stand by one another and let Christ be present as saviour for the world.

Jesus despised by his own

Jesus said to them: "A prophet is only despised in his own country among his own relations and in his own house". One of the mistakes we easily and often make is to think that what we see is all there is to see; what we know is all that there is to know. We do this about ourselves as well as about those close to us. There is always so much more to know about ourselves and certainly about each other. In marriage and family life, for example, we need to constantly look for and acknowledge the goodness that is there and set it free. Our homes should be places of praise instead of criticism as is so often the case. The same is true in a parish community. There is so much richness in every parish that never gets a chance to come to the surface. This is a week for letting that happen.

I am the bread of life

Jesus said to the crowd: 'I am the bread of life. And the bread that I shall give is my flesh for the life of the world'. By far the most extraordinary gift that God has given to his people is the Eucharist. In it we are invited constantly to receive the Body and Blood of Christ as our nourishment for the journey of life. In it we celebrate the salvation of the world and renew that salvation every time we celebrate it. This week is a time to reflect on our appreciation of this wonderful gift and renew our enthusiasm for it. Because it is so accessible we can get used to it and take it for granted and we can lose the joy of our celebration. In the Eucharist God speaks most clearly of the extent of his love and how special each of us is to him. To live as a people of the Eucharist we need also speak clearly of our love for one another in our homes and in our parish community.

Anyone who eats this bread will live forever

Jesus said to the crowd: 'Anyone who eats this bread will live forever'. To live forever is one of the longings in every human heart. And yet death is part of every human life. Jesus reveals though that death is not the end but only the beginning of new life and he has led the way for us through his resurrection. And he gives us his own body and blood to lead us into eternal life. Through the Eucharist we are already united with life that will last forever, a life that we are called on to live now through our love for God and for one another. Eucharistic people are meant to be people who live life to the full, people who radiate hope, people who are known for their joy and gladness in being alive, people who forgive easily and often, people who bring peace and happiness into the lives of all whom they meet.

It is the spirit that gives life

Jesus said to the Twelve: “Do you want to go away too?” Simon Peter answered: “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the message of eternal life.” With all the scandals and consequent upheaval in the Church today, many people are finding it difficult to stay with the Church. And many are leaving. Today's Gospel is a strong plea to think again. This does not mean turning a blind eye to all that has happened. That would be totally irresponsible. It does mean though getting back to the basics of what the Church is about, Jesus Christ, and committing ourselves to him again. We do this by committing ourselves to one another in marriage; by making our homes true Domestic Churches through the quality of our love and prayer; and by making a commitment to develop our faith community as a place where everyone is revered and loved and where we worship our God in spirit and in truth.

The Commandments of Life

'This people honours me only with lip-service, while their hearts are far from me.' Jesus quoted this passage from the prophet Isaiah to the Pharisees and Scribes. We need to listen to it today also. We get so used to doing particular things that we can forget why we are doing them and then our hearts are not in them. This is true of the practice of our faith, which can easily be reduced by us to rituals and duties. It is true also in our love for one another. Husbands and wives need to constantly renew their love for one another and put their hearts into that love again. Parents need to renew their love for their children because parenting can easily become a burden that is carried with little heart. And we need to put new heart into our prayer so that God may come more and more alive to us.

God does all things well

"He (Jesus) makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak." In the Gospels we can hear a real sense of awe among the people who witnessed the miracles of Jesus. It wasn't just for the fact that he cured people but also it was because of the wonderful gentleness and compassion that he showed towards those who were suffering. That same power and those same qualities of his love are there for us today. They are given to us to transform the quality of life in our homes and community. We will know that we have been touched by him this week if we let our ears be opened to hear the needs of those in our homes and community and respond to them. Equally we will know his touch if we let our tongues be loosened to speak to one another words of love, of praise, of comfort, of encouragement.

The Triumph of the Cross

Jesus said, “If you want to be a follower of mine, renounce yourself, take up your cross, and follow me.” In this one sentence from Jesus there are two things that most of us don’t want to do. Our world teaches us to ‘be yourself’. Jesus teaches us to renounce yourself. This doesn’t mean to put yourself down but to let go of your own self-importance and find your true self in being loved and in loving. And then he tells us to take up our cross. Immediately we think of suffering. Many of us have suffering in our lives and certainly this can be our cross. But more importantly the cross we need to take up is that of the consequences of putting others first in love. It is the cross of moving out of our own small world of self-preoccupation and living for others in our marriage, our family, and our community.

Christ, the Son of God

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If anyone wants to be first he/she must make himself/herself least of all and servant of all.' Whoever said that religion is the opium of the people obviously never read the Gospels because if opium was nearly as difficult to take as some of the things that Jesus said there would be very few people taking it! And yet the truth is that only his way works. We all want to be first in so many different ways. We can see people in every sphere of life going around puffed up with their self-importance, often putting others down in order to keep their position. It is the opposite to the way of Jesus and can never lead to lasting happiness. This week again we are invited to practice putting other people first, especially in our marriage, families and communities and know the joy that this brings.

The family of God

Jesus said to the Pharisees – when talking to them about marriage and divorce: ‘They are no longer two therefore, but one body.’ A phenomenon, and one of the very sad features of our world today, is the number of marriages that break down. And we should have the greatest reverence for and compassion towards those people who are in this situation. However, the challenge for us is to keep faith in marriage and to reverence the institution of marriage as a vitally important part of God’s plan for our humanity and as one of the sacraments of the Church. Marriage is under all kinds of pressure. It needs to also have all kinds of support from all of us whether we are married or not so that every couple will be encouraged to aim for and work towards the best possible marriage and not settle for mediocrity in their love.

Christian Values

The rich young man said to Jesus: 'Good Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Many people today live as if everything can be bought, even God's favour. We might not think of this just in terms of buying with money but with duty, with doing what we have to and then God somehow is in our debt. The way of Jesus is that eternal life can only be accomplished through love – first of all God's love for us, which is freely given, and then our love for God and for one another. This way of love means giving up a lot of selfishness and self-preoccupation just as the rich young man in the Gospel had to give up his riches before he could even begin to see what following Jesus was about. The guarantee though is that it is more than worth all our effort as this way of love brings happiness in this life and eternal happiness with God.

Mission Sunday

Next weekend we will celebrate World Mission Sunday, it takes place in every single parish worldwide where the Church is present. In Ireland, Missio Ireland is tasked with organising the Mission Sunday collection Missio Ireland is the Pope’s official charity for overseas mission.

For Mission Sunday 2024, Pope Francis has chosen the theme ‘Go and invite everyone to the banquet’. Mission, he said, is a tireless going out to all men and women, in order to invite them to encounter God.

For those considering becoming priests of the Derry Diocese, but who are anxious about giving up so many of the things they have and enjoy in order to follow the Lord in this way, we pray that they will take to heart the words of Jesus in this weekend's gospel: "For you it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God."

Sunday 13th October

Christian ambition

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Anyone who wants to be great among you must be the servant of all'. We often think that people are being fully accepted by us when we treat them like one of the family. And it is a lovely way to be. But the opposite is also very important to practice, namely that we would treat one another in our families the way we treat those who are visiting us. In this situation we take great care to be ready for them; we get all the best implements out for them; we prepare good food for them. And when they are gone we sometimes are relieved but more often than not we talk about the good things that we can see in them. This is also true within a parish community. We should take great care of one another, the way we would if there was a group of very special visitors coming to celebrate with us. That is how Christ wants us to be together

Christian hope

Jesus asked: 'What do you want me to do for you?' This question, asked in the Gospel of a blind man, is addressed to each one of us by Jesus. The man who was born blind had no hesitation in asking for his sight to be given him. That was the single most important thing for him in his life. We should ask ourselves what our single most important need and desire is for our own lives. In what ways are we blind and need our sight restored? Maybe it is in relation to what our real priorities are. Or maybe it is in our close relationships of marriage and family life where we can easily fail to see the hurt or distress or loneliness of one another. Or we may be blind to our responsibility to care for those around us in our parish or wider community who are in need. This week is a call to look into our hearts and open ourselves up to the power of Christ to heal us and set us free.

Christian trust

Jesus said to his disciples: “This poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury”. Today we judge the importance of things by how much they cost. And we also judge the importance of people by how wealthy they are. Jesus gives us a different way of judging, namely by how generous a person is. Generosity is one of the best signs of how free people are within themselves because the greatest freedom is to love with our whole hearts. So many things block that freedom in us, particularly our need to protect our possessions and to increase them. In the person of the poor widow, Jesus gives us the example of complete freedom. This week we are invited to practice this freedom in our homes and in our community by giving time and attention to one another. We are also asked to give to those in need in our world. How free are you to be generous?

Father Liam Donnelly

Last week, we were all very saddened as a Parish to learn of Fr. Liam Donnelly's death. Although last week and the circumstances were very sad, there arose a wonderful sense of Parish community and coming together.

Fr. Liam was held in the highest respect because of his gentle and diligent ministry right to the very end.

The wake, the preparation of the church, the cemetery, the music, the funeral liturgy, and the refreshments were all prepared and carried out with great generosity and willingness.

The many visitors were very much impressed. Thank you so much for your dedication and care for Fr. Liam and his family. Also, thank you for your extraordinary dedication to our Parish of Lavey.

The Christian vision

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away'. Every now and again someone spreads the rumour of the end of the world. So far it hasn't taken place! We have something far more important than the end of the world to make our preoccupation, namely the wonderful presence of Christ with us and in us and around us. As followers of Jesus we have a great responsibility to the world we live in to witness to him by the way we live as his people in spite of all the scandals and all the upheaval in the Church today. We do this by the joy of God's presence and love shining out through us. And we do it by the quality of life we develop in our homes and in our parish community, a quality that is characterised by kindness, gentleness, care, enthusiasm, peace, hope, forgiveness.

Feast of Christ the King

Christ our King

Jesus said to Pilate: 'All who are on the side of truth listen to my voice'. We celebrate Christ as King, not in the sense of the world around us, which would look to power and strength, but as the one who has the true power of truth. In him we know God as one who loves us so much that he has given us his only Son to bring us to a knowledge of his love. In Christ we also come to know the deepest truths about ourselves – that every human person is made in the image of God; that each of us is a dwelling place of God's Holy Spirit; that we are destined for eternal life; that the only way to live human life fully is to love God with our whole hearts and to love our neighbour as ourselves. It has been said that Christianity has not so much failed, as it has never been tried!

Our liberation from fear

Jesus said to his disciples: “Hold your heads high, for your liberation is close at hand”. Over the past few years, with all the revelations of scandals in the Church and society, there is a lot for us to be ashamed of and repent for. However, the resulting despair that some people have experienced is not necessary because there continues to be so much goodness in the Church and society that we can be proud of. This week we begin a new year in our journey of faith with Christ. It is an opportunity to have confidence once again in his presence with us, and his power in us. Without in any way being unrealistic, this is a time to look towards him to save us and to set us free. We will find that freedom in how we are with one another in our homes and in our parish community as we approach Christmas and beyond with love rather than selfishness or fear.

The joy of salvation

“(John) went through the whole Jordan district proclaiming a baptism for the forgiveness of sins.” Every day we are made aware of how much evil there is in our world, with stories of cruelty and vandalism at home and abroad. And yet in spite of this awareness there is a huge decline in our sense of sin. In some ways this is a good development because in former times so much was thought of as sin. However, as we approach Christmas and beyond, it is important that we hear the call for repentance and leave anything that is harmful in the past behind us by placing it firmly in the hands of Christ, especially through celebrating the great Sacrament of Confession if possible. We constantly need to make a fresh start, again and again, in our relationships with God and with one another in our homes and in our parish community.

3rd Sunday of Advent
Gaudete Sunday

A day of festival

The people asked John: 'What must we do?' This question was in the context of John's proclaiming the Good News of the coming of Christ. As we prepare for Christmas this year what a good question that is for all of us. 'What must we do?' If you are a parent, give time to your children rather than just giving them all the costly presents that you are planning. If you are married, give your wife/husband the gift of your attention and affection rather than spending all that time apart at Christmas time. If you are young, give some of your time and energy to those in need rather than just looking for what you can get. If you are at odds with someone, make it up. If you are in bad form, change for the sake of those close to you. And for all of us, what we must do is put Christ at the heart of Christmas and have a wonderful time.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE 2024

As we approach Christmas and the New Year 2025, I want to assure you of my prayers and remembrance at the Christmas Masses. I ask you to continue to pray for me as I enjoy the great privilege of serving the people of Lavey. I am always overwhelmed by your kindness and support as well as your patience.

During the year I have been privileged to journey with you in good times and in bad. This is a privilege that I do not take for granted, and it is unequalled in any other walk of life or vocation.

For some 2024 has brought days of joy, for others sadness. Even in the darkest of times the kindness of so many people seems to be boundless.

This time last year we could never have envisaged the terrible events in the Middle East as well as the continuing conflicts in Ukraine, The Sudan and Myanmar. The current cost of living crisis continues to impact on so many. With patience and perseverance as well as prayer better days will come.

There have been many bright times in our parish in 2024, the great work of St. Brigid's Primary School, the joy that Lavey Club and the Termoneeny Community Association have brought us, not to speak of the unending goodness and kindness of our people.

This year we see stable Governments in Belfast, Dublin and London. As we look at a very unstable world, we should not take for granted the dedication of our public and elected representatives who seek to serve us all.

We also continue to be grateful for the peace that we enjoy yet never forgetting those who suffered so much during the years of the troubles.

Jesus being born 2000 years ago brought light into a darkened world, today he continues to bring that light into our lives and our world.

We particularly think of our Lavey folk in far off lands. They are always with us in spirit.

May you and your families have the peace and light of the Child of Bethlehem this Christmas and always.

Fr. Eamonn
